Vitamin C/Coated 97/DC97

VC series: The vitamin C market has sufficient supply, large upstream capacity, and a certain amount of inventory in domestic and foreign channels. The market price slowly declined in October. According to different brands, China's export FOB price is about USD2.8-3.1/KG, sodium VC is about USD3.1-3.6/KG, calcium VC is about USD3.5-4.2/KG, and VC DC 97 is about USD3.3-3.9/KG. With the VC price entering a new bottom space, the market price is expected to be stable in the later period, At present, the user is suggested to buy-in appropriately.

Vitamin B1 Mono/Hcl

The market price keeps stable with slightly downwards in Oct. For rising up of USD rate, the export price is getting better. In later period, it is expected to keep stable at market price. The current price for VB1 Mono is around USD16.0-17.0/KG FOB, and VB1 Hcl is around USD20-21.5/KG FOB.

Vitamin B2 98%

The products keep stable this week. Due to exchange rate changes the price might float a little. And new factory begin to offer a lower price. The current pricing is around USD40-50/KG depending different brand and quantities.

D-Calcium Pan/Vitamin B5

This product is being stable and little strong this month, spot stock is being consumed. Now the market price is around FOB USD23-25/KG from different brands. We predict it will be stable at least, need to pay the action of factorises.

Vitamin B6

The product market keeps stable generally in Oct. Price is at the bottom level for long period. and market demand is a little bit weak. Thus It is almost safe to make stock reserve at present. It is expected to keep stable later. The current market price is around USD15-17/KG.

Folic Acid

The factory offer keeps stable with slightly downwards in Oct, and the market demand is a little bit quite. The market price is at a bottom level, thus it is safe to make stock reserve if need. Current factory offer is around USD28-30/KG FOB from different brands.
