● Overview

The trading volume of the API market in this period is weaker than in the previous period, with the main categories maintaining a low price range, and the market trade channels maintaining low positions or reducing holdings. The sell prices in some regional markets are flexibly adjusted based on actual orders. The transaction prices of Florfenicol, Doxycycline hydrochloride, Tylosin, Neomycin sulfate and other markets were weak, and the supply competition attitude of mainstream factories continued. Pay attention to the recent positive news released by mainstream factories such as Colistin sulfate and Apramycin.

● Exchange Rate

The exchange rate is stable at 1USD = 6.95RMB, 1EUR=7.57RMB.
