VITAMIN

01

VIT B2 80%: Based on the current market conditions and the influence of raw materials, Shandong Fengyin raised price to FOB13.5 USD/KG. Hegno quote FOB14.5 USD/KG starting from March 4th.

INOSITOL: Since last Friday, mainstream manufacturers of inositol stopped quoting. After the CNY holiday, customer replenishment increased significantly, and the transaction volume increased significantly year-on-year. In addition, mainstream manufacturers suddenly stopped quoting, so the inquiry and demand have increased a lot.

AMINO ACID

02

It is understood that starting from March 1st, 2024, Adisseo liquid methionine has increased its price by 10%. This week, the factory quotations for 98% lysine hcl increased a lot. Since the factory stopped reporting and mainly for shipments, most end-users chose to wait and see. The threonine market is generally stable, with users replenishing goods according to urgent needs. The export price is between USD 1285-1300/MT. It is expected it will be stable in the later period.

API

03

This week, the API market still maintains a weak and stable trend. Market demand is not very strong. Customers mainly purchase for urgent needs, and the prices of some products are still declining. Among them, the prices of doxycycline, tylosin tartrate, tilmicosin phosphate, and florfenicol have been weakened; oxytetracycline niacin, sulfonamides are stable at low levels; levamisole hydrochloride is affected by upstream raw materials, and the market price has increased.

FOOD ADDITIVE

04

This week, the food plate as a whole to maintain stable operation, sweetener series product prices to maintain normal delivery; Creatine monohydrate factories produce the goods normally, some factories have schedule the delivery to April, the current factory price is still stable; L-carnitine series product price to maintain stable operation; The price of sodium benzoate has increased due to the backlog of orders during the Spring Festival, and the order delivery time has been extended.
