VITAMIN

01

Based on the current market conditions, starting from May 23rd, the domestic market price of Vitamin B2 80% in feed grade from Guangji Pharmaceutical has been raised to RMB120/KG, and the FOB price for export markets has been raised to USD 13.5/KG.

AMINO ACID

02

According to the latest news from Dahe, the company's amino acid production line plans to undergo routine maintenance during the year in July, which will last for about one month. The recent lysine market transactions have been a bit weak, and end users only purchase on urgent demand. In the future, we will pay attention to the factory's order receipt and delivery situation.

API

03

Tylosin tartrate/tilmicosin, mainstream factory quotations have been adjusted this week, mainly affected by market demand and the cost of the product itself. Currently, market inquiries and purchase orders are increasing, and market popularity is slowly increasing. It is speculated that the decline will stop before the CPHI meeting.

FOOD ADDITIVE

04

Recently, the food additive anhydrous saccharin sodium has been affected by market demand. The transaction price in foreign markets is about USD5.3-5.5/KG. It is expected that the price of anhydrous saccharin sodium will stabilize in the short term.
