This week, mainstream manufacturers of B1 raised MONO's prices, while HCL stopped reporting: Tianxin's vitamin B1 mono was quoted at $24/KG, while hcl were suspended; Huazhong's vitamin B1 mono and HCL were stopped quoting, and are expected to resume quotations at the end of June.

AMINO ACID

02

Methionine: At present, the manufacturer's solid methionine price is stable, and the transaction is negotiable. The trade market price is CNY 21.5-22.5/KG, and the market transaction is weak. The manufacturer's price of liquid methionine is stable, and the trade market price is CNY 15.5-16.5/KG. The terminal replenishment sentiment is general, and the wait-and-see attitude towards the future market is mainly. It is expected that the methionine market will remain stable in the short term.

API

03

Doxycycline hydrochloride: This week, mainstream factories have resumed quoting prices, and the current price is RMB 335-340. The current market inventory is limited and reluctant to sell. As the market heats up slowly, it is speculated that the subsequent price will continue to rise slowly, so please pay attention.
