VITAMIN | Vitamin K3

01

Due to the price rising of raw materials and the CPHI exhibition is about to start, K3 domestic market attention has increased, and manufacturers have stopped quotation.

AMINO ACID | Lysine

02

The lysine quotation of second-tier domestic manufacturers was slightly increased in a stable manner, the enthusiasm of the market inquiry was slightly reduced, and the trade market quotation was increased. At present, the terminal demand is weak, and maily purchase according the demand, some users wait and see the future market, and the sentiment of making up orders is slightly weak.

API | Amoxicillin

03

Currently Amoxicillin maintain a medium and high stable operation, the market price USD30.2-31.4/KG, the market supply and demand is relatively stable and balanced, the subsequent price is expected to be stable.

FOOD ADDITIVE

04

Recently, the food additive anhydrous saccharin sodium is affected by market demand, and the transaction price in the export market is about USD5.3-5.5/KG, and the price of anhydrous saccharin sodium is stable in the future.
