VITAMIN

01

The cost of biotin has been under pressure for a long time, and some manufacturers have stopped production early on, or even purchased the product from outside. At the same time, due to the combined influence of rising prices of other varieties, some biotin manufacturers have chosen to stop reporting and wait and see, and the attention to biotin has slightly increased.

AMINO ACID

02

Methionine: The quotations of solid methionine manufacturers are weak, the transactions are small, and the end users are mainly digesting the previous inventory, with less replenishment. It is expected that the methionine market will be weak in the short term.

API

03

On August 6, Northeast Pharmaceutical officially announced that it had signed a "Framework Agreement on Equity Acquisition" with Beijing Dingcheng Peptide Source Biotechnology Co., Ltd., intending to acquire 70% of the equity of Dingcheng Peptide Source. This move indicates that Northeast Pharmaceutical is expected to fully control Dingcheng Peptide Source, officially enter the frontier track of specific cell immunotherapy technology, and deepen its strategic layout in the field of biopharmaceuticals.

FOOD ADDITIVE

04

Affected by market demand, the current market price of food prebiotic oligofructose is stable at USD4.5-4.7/KG. In the short term, the price will not change significantly, and we will continue to pay attention to market changes.
