Vitamins to VEGA!

1st. November. 2024

VITAMIN | Vitamin C

01

Recently, the main raw material of vitamin C sorbitol market supply is tight, and the price continues to rise. Affected by this, NEW TUOYANG VC domestic stop quotation, export quotes rose to USD5.5 /KG, other factories have also raised prices.

AMINO ACID | Tryptophan

02

On October 31, 2024, Daesang (Beijing) Harbin Branch offered 98% tryptophan (sewon brand) at USD6.85/KG. Customers sign orders cautiously, expected tryptophan prices keep stable or weak.

API | Florfenicol

03

Recently, florfenicol has been affected by the increase in terminal demand and the long-term loss pressure of the factory, which resulting in the continuous tight supply situation of the factory in the past two months, and the spot inventory has been significantly reduced, which has prompted the price rising. At present, the delivery date of most factories has been scheduled to December, and some even extended to January 2025. Replenishment of stock in the market is active, and the attention of this product continues to rise. Up to now, some factories continue to stop reporting, the market price range is between USD23-23.7/KG, and is expected to reach more than USD25/KG, and will maintain a strong price rise in the near future.

FOOD ADDITIVE | Carnitine

04

Recently, the market price of carnitine series products is stable, due to weak downstream demand, the fluctuation of upstream raw materials has not significantly affected the market for the time being.

Carnitine Base, mainstream manufacturers offer range: USD18.7-20/KG;

L-carnitine hydrochloride, mainstream manufacturers offer range: USD20.6-21.9/KG;

L-carnitine tartrate, mainstream manufacturers offer range: 17.5-18.7/KG.

It is expected that the short-term price of the product will show a stable trend, and we will continue to pay attention to the market.
