VITAMIN

01

In order to expand domestic and international markets and enhance the company's brand influence and market competitiveness, Zhejiang Garden Biotechnology Co., Ltd. plans to establish a subsidiary in Macao, which will mainly engage in the research and development, production and sales of health products. The company's Chinese name is: Garden Livvy (Macao) Biotechnology Co., Ltd., and the company's English name is: GARDEN LIVVY (MACAU) BIOTECHNOLOGY CO., LTD.

AMINO ACID

Methionine: Solid methionine manufacturers offer stable prices, prices are around USD2425-2488/MT, and there are few inquiries in the trade market. Liquid methionine manufacturers offer stable prices, contract prices are USD1845-1905/MT, and there are not many transactions. The transaction is weak and stable. The market continues to be in oversupply, and the overall orders are small. End users are mostly on the sidelines, and they make up for it as they go in. It is expected that the short-term price will be weak and stable and we will pay attention to recent transactions.

API

03

Florfenicol has a relatively stable market price recently, with factory quotations ranging from USD24 to 25/KG. There are few stocks on the market, and most factories have scheduled their deliveries until after the New Year, with some having delivery dates in January. Prices are expected to remain strong in the near future.

FOOD ADDITIVE

04

Recently, the price of xanthan gum, a food additive, has been on the rise due to market demand. The current transaction price in the domestic market is around USD3.2-3.4/KG. It is predicted that the price may continue to rise in the short term.
